Art Unit: 1755

Applicants' remarks filed on December 11, 2006, have been carefully considered. No claims have been canceled or added; claims 1-18 remain pending in this application.

Priority

1. Receipt is acknowledged of papers submitted under 35 U.S.C. 119(a)-(d), which papers have been placed of record in the file.

Applicants' Priority Document or Documents was or were filed on December 8, 2004.

Maintained Rejections

The following rejection of record has been maintained; the text of those sections of Title 35, U.S. Code not included in this action can be found in a prior Office action.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

2. Claims 1-6, 9-11, and 13-18 stand rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Weinert et al. (U. S. Patent Application Publication No. 2005/0161678)

The applied reference has common inventors with the instant application. Based upon the earlier effective U.S. filing date of the reference, it constitutes prior art under 35 U.S.C. 102(e). This rejection under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) might be overcome either by a showing under 37 CFR 1.132 that any invention disclosed but not claimed in the reference was derived from the inventor of this application and is thus not the invention "by another," or by an appropriate showing under 37 CFR 1.131.

Weinert et al. disclose plane-parallel structures of SiO_y , wherein $1 \leq y \leq 1.8$, and wherein y can equal 0.95. See paragraph 62 of Weinert et al. (considered to read upon claims 1, 13, and 14).

Weinert et al. also disclose SiO_2 flakes having a "high plane-parallelism" having a thickness. Said flakes also can be provided with one or more metal oxide and/or metal layers, wherein, in case of the metal oxide, a metal oxide layer having a high index of refraction is deposited first. Further, it is possible to obtain pigments on the basis of SiO_2 substrates (considered to read upon claims 2, 3, 15, and 16) comprising metal oxides such as those recited in Applicants' claims 4, 5, and 18, defined in Weinert et al. as a "dielectric material having a 'high' refractive index". See paragraph 126 of Weinert et al., as well as paragraph 75, which depict exemplary pigments that read upon claim 6.

The pigments disclosed in Weinert et al. can be employed in pigmenting "high molecular weight organic material". See paragraph 147 of Weinert et al., as well as paragraph 152, which discloses percentage amounts of the high molecular weight organic material corresponding to Applicants' claims 9 and 17.

Paragraphs 157-159 of Weinert et al. disclose that, for pigmenting surface coatings and printing inks, the high molecular weight organic materials, the pigments disclosed in Weinert et al., and customary additives are finely dispersed or dissolved in an organic solvent or solvent mixture, to obtain colorations. This disclosure is considered to read upon Applicants' claim 11.

Paragraph 162 of Weinert et al. discloses a cosmetic preparation or formulation comparable to that recited in Applicants' claim 10.

In view of these teachings, Weinert et al. anticipate claims 1-6, 9-11, and 13-18.

Response to Arguments

3. The rejection of record has been maintained because Applicants' Declarations under 37 CFR 1.132 filed on December 8, 2006, are insufficient to overcome this rejection. The Declaration signed by Inventor Weinert contains an alteration not initialed by Declarant (i.e., the deletion of the text "147-162" on page 2 thereof).

Allowable Subject Matter

4. Claims 7 and 8 remain objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

5. Claim 12 remains allowed.

6. The following is a statement of reasons for the indication of allowable subject matter:

Weinert et al. do not teach or suggest pigments as recited in Applicants' claims 7 and 8. With respect to claim 12, paragraphs 20-27 of Weinert et al. disclose a method comparable to that recited in claim 12. However, the reference discloses oxidizing the structures in an oxygen-containing gas at temperatures greater than 200° C; see, for example, paragraph 61 of Weinert et al.

Conclusion

7. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.

Bujard et al. (U. S. Patent Application Publication No. 2006/0042507, and WO 2004/035693) disclose pigments strongly similar to that instantly claimed; however, both documents are disqualified as prior art under 35 U.S.C. 102, as the 371 (c) date of the Publication and the International Publication Date of the WO document are subsequent to Applicants' effective filing date of June 16, 2003.
